SIERRA PACIFIC POWER COMPANY, doing

Defendant.

Case No. 3:10-cv-00102-LRH-RAM

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant page or otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party or non-

1 party considers in good faith to contain information involving medical information, trade secrets, or 2 confidential business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil 3 Procedure or Nevada law ("Confidential Information"). Where a document or response consists of 4 more than one page, the first page and each page on which confidential information appears shall 5 be so designated.

6 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in 7 response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on the record at 8 the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
9 Additionally a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt of 10 said response or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that specific 11 pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as "confidential" information. Any 12 other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the 13 parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall 14 be responsible for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their 15 possession or control with the specific designation.

16 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 17 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the information 18 is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

19 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this 20 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed to 21 any person other than:

22 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel 23 and co-counsel retained for this litigation;

24 (b) employees of such counsel;

25 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a 26 party, to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

27 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of 28 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to

1 this Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the 2 Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the 3 pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of the 4 Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information;

5 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

6 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

7 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall 8 sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential Information may 9 be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a deposition at which the party
 10 who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has been given notice that 11 Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to paragraph 2 above.
 12 Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain copies.

13 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 14 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set 15 forth herein.

16 6. No party or non-party shall file or submit for filing as part of the court record any 17 documents under seal without first obtaining leave of court. Notwithstanding any agreement 18 among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the 19 presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court.

20 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials produced 21 by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document numbers or other 22 identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or discovery materials. Any 23 party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without restriction any information designated 24 by that party or non-party as confidential, although a document may lose its confidential status if it 25 is made public.

26 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 27 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
 28 The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days from the

1 receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as 2 confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the 3 document is entitled to protection.

4 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
5 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
6 unless and until one of the following occurs:

7 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information 8 withdraws such designation in writing; or

9 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential
10 Information fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the 11 time period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 12 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

13 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
14 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed 15 or ordered. Upon conclusion of this litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential Information, 16 other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition transcripts, shall 17 either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of this action to 18 counsel for the party or non-party who provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents 19 within the time period upon consent of the party who provided the information and certify in 20 writing within thirty (30) days that the documents have been destroyed.

21 11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the use 22 of documents at trial.

23 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product
24 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material 25 protected by privilege or work product protection.

27 ///

28 ///

13. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
